

The Jungle

*Expect the unexpected
For the jungles is full of peculiar animals
Some who have been neglected
And others who are unprotected
Like chimpanzees, who resort to being cannibals*

*From a birds eye view, the jungle bursts out with bright green
An absolutely tremendous sight
Like anyone would dream to have seen
The air is so fresh and clean
Such a nice wonderful breeze*

*Rivers and trees in a formation
Where animals can quite easily explore
But some prefer to stay at home with the fear of annihilation
Prey, shivering from the thoughts of predators in isolation
Others prefer to stay out, hearing the sound of the jungles roar!*
